The exhibition of Fernanda Fragateiro will be inaugurated at the International Museum of Contemporary Sculpture (MIEC), on October 19, at 7:30 p.m.

In Santo Tirso, its exhibition, called "Process", brings together a set of nine sculptures produced in recent years, which reconfigure and adapt to space, in stone, steel, iron, glass, wood or even fabrics. And, also, three new works designed specifically for the MIEC.

The highlight goes to the piece "Double Negative", which will be about 60 meters long.

Fernanda Fragateiro was unanimously honored in September with the AICA prize of the International Association of Art Critics.

Her works have been exhibited in museums and cultural centers around the world and are represented in collections such as Caixa Geral de Depósitos, Serralves Foundation and Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation.
